Dear Scout:

It is my duty to inform you that Calusa Lodge of the Order of the Arrow, went out of existence as of December 31, 1955 - the date upon which its National Charter expired. This was due to the fact that the Lodge Chief failed to make application for a new Charter.

The form upon which to make such application was received in the Council headquarters office early in February and transmitted to Lodge Advisor David Blake on February 6th. He forwarded it immediately to the Lodge Chief to fill out and return. The latter did not do so and, in spite of repeated inquiries from Mr. Blake to the Lodge Chief, no response has been had.

All memberships terminated, of course, when the Charter expired,

No effort will be made at this time to re-organize the Lodge.

Sincerely,
